

NICK'S NEW HEART

---

BACK FLAP

Continued from front flap

describes the brilliant care and dedication of the highly-skilled doctors and staff who were able to turn the life of a dying baby from a tragedy into a triumph. Often touching, sometimes sad and scary, sometimes funny, this story demonstrates the extraordinary results of doctor/family teamwork, positive attitudes, and the needed support of others when a serious medical condition strikes any child.

A voracious reader, SUSAN MAY enjoys many types of literature. She is a member of Mainstreet Writers Association, Georgia Romance Writers, and Romance Writers of America and the Georgia Writers Association. She has been published by USAA Magazine, the Auburn Alumni Magazine, the Transplant Chronicles, the Atlanta Journal/Constitution, and the Cartersville Tribune. Susan has been recognized by Lifelink of Georgia for her advocacy of organ donation and is an active member of The Mentor Project, supported by the Georgia Transplant Foundation. She is also an accomplished public speaker. A graduate of Auburn University, Susan lives with Andy (her husband of twenty-five years) and their four children in Cartersville, Georgia.

***